SEVEN ARRESTS IN CLEVELAND BOMBING PLOT

CLAIM JAILED PERSONS KNOW OF BLASTING OF DAVIS HOME

Roundup Part of Nation-wide Clean-up of Alleged Terrorists.

NAMES ARE WITHHELD

Suspect One Prisoner of Planting Bomb Which Wrecked Residence.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 29.—Control of the government through a campaign of terrorism to have culminated next May day was the object of the band of terrorists whose plans were exposed through the seizure here of seven of its alleged members, according to the police.

Police Captain Lavella, whose activities resulted in the arrests here, revealed this afternoon that the plans of the "Reds" were so far along that sample bombs have already been tested and sample knives and steel bludgeons with which the members of the ring were to be armed have been made.

According to Captain Lavella, the members of the "ring" are all of foreign birth. It was planned to have 5,000 each of the knives and bludgeons manufactured. Automatic revolvers were to be provided for the leaders of the movement, it is said.

The roundup which started last night is the start of a national clean-up which may result in the arrest of the whole membership of the band of terrorists who last June attempted the lives of eight prominent men in a smoky city throughout the country.

Names of the men under arrest here are withheld by the police and it is reported that one of them may be the man who actually planted the bomb which wrecked Mayor Davis' home here. Arrest of the woman now being sought is expected to clear up the local outrage.

Further arrests here and in several of the cities in which the June bomb outrages took place are expected to follow. Detectives today were on their way to Chicago, New York, Washington and other cities to co-operate in bringing about additional arrests.

"We believe these arrests will open the trail to the most dangerous anarchistic circle in the country that has been at work in more than 100 cities throughout the country," declared Police Captain Martin Lavella, who has spent all of his time since last June to running down the bomb-ers.

Information which brought about the arrests last night came from Chicago. According to the "tip" the central police station here was to be Continued on Page Two

LEADERS OF WORKERS UNLIKELY TO RECALL ORDER FOR WALKOUT

Only Two Possibilities to Stay Tie-up of Bituminous Coal Production at Midnight Friday Are Drastic Action by Government or Overtures From Operators Paving Way For Agreement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 29.—A strike of soft coal miners of the nation is inevitable.

This was the general opinion of officials of the United Mine Workers as they went into conference here today to frame a reply to President Wilson's plea that the strike order calling out half a million miners at midnight Friday, be recalled.

Only two possibilities appeared to stay a tie-up of the bituminous coal production of the United States—drastic action by the government or overtures from the operators paying the way for an agreement.

"A status quo prevails," was the final word of John L. Lewis, acting president of the mine workers, as the doors of the conference room closed upon the executive session.

Lewis, William Green, secretary, the executive council of 25, presidents of 25 district organizations and 32 members of the scale committee comprise the body upon which rested the decision as to whether the nation would be plunged into one of the greatest disasters it has ever known.

The attitude of the president on the prohibition enforcement law expresses the sentiment of the miners in regard to our demands," said Mr. Lewis, who arrived late yesterday from Springfield, Ill. "The war emergency has passed and with it has passed our wage agreement."

The miners' executive reiterated statements that the miners were willing to go to the last minute to meet the operators "without reservations."

"I cannot say whether there is hope that the strike may be averted," said Wm. Green, international secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America. "Everything rests with the conference. Having had no conversations with the delegates, I do not know what the attitude of the men in the various districts may be toward a recall of the strike order."

If the expressions of representatives from widely scattered fields may be taken as an indication of the attitude of the miners, the conference may be powerless to stay the walkout.

"The men are wild to strike," declared Ben Williams, representative from Springfield, Ill. "I doubt if the conference can force them to continue work if the strike order is recalled."

Believe Recall Would Be Ignored

"The men feel that the operators have had the preference in the wage negotiations and they feel that the public and the press are not with them. The press has poisoned the minds of the people. The people are not fighting the miners' battles; they do not know what the miners have suffered in the past to win slight gains."

"The conference could be 'woundup in two minutes,' declared W. C. Thompson, representative from Cambridge, O., "if all the men have the same attitude as those in my district. It is very doubtful if they would comply with a recall of the order to strike. At least a recall would cause great confusion."

A characteristic telegram received by Lewis just before he entered the meeting read:

"Live or die, sink or swim, survive or perish, strike without alteration or variations to the original demands of the Cleveland convention." The telegram was from a Terre Haute local.

COST $7,000, WORTH $8.00

Testimony on Value of Medical Building at Camp Sherman.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 29.—That a medical building, erected at Camp Sherman, near Chillicothe, cost the government $7,000, but was worth not over $800, was the testimony of M. L. Stephenson, contractor, first witness examined here today by the congressional committee probing war expenditures. Stephenson was formerly employed at Camp Sherman. He was questioned by Congressman Roscoe McCullough of Canton. Stephenson charged misjudgment against Supt. Maynard of his section. He said he hired as many as 35 men on the job, when in his judgment ten good carpenters would have been sufficient. He said aside from five men, some of the men employed on this job had no qualifications. He charged that high school teachers and students and one bartender that he knows were employed as expert carpenters and received carpenters' wages.

Stephenson said that he was instructed that he should not discharge any of the men because men were needed.

The building in question was a two-story frame, 21x118 feet, in section H, Camp Sherman.

blown up as the officers assembled for roll call in the evening. It was to have been an inside job, one of the members of the gang planning to seek a position on the force in order to plant the bomb.

Additional information secured by Captain Lavelle and his assistants indicated that the gang was planning a widespread bomb attack for next spring.

Two of the men in custody were arrested by a squad of officers as they came from an old barn which the police say was their bomb factory. One finished bomb, a timing clock for electrical devices and enough nitro-glycerine to blow up the largest building in the city were found in the "factory," in addition to revolvers and ammunition.

"We were making fireworks," the two men told the police when seized. The completed bomb found was identical in type with that used to blow up Mayor Davis' home, according to the police bomb experts.

Raid on the quarters of the men brought to light additional bomb making paraphernalia, additional revolvers and a whiskey still.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The headquarters here of social anarchists are being combed by police and detectives today searching for the ringleader of a gang of reds several members of which were arrested in Cleveland last night by detectives working on the bomb plots of last June.

SEEK MEN FOR HEALTH JOBS

Will Receive Application for Health Commissionership Until Nov. 15.

Applications of candidates for appointment to the positions of health commissioners under the new Hughes health act which becomes effective the first of the year will close Nov. 15, according to an announcement Tuesday from headquarters of the state board of health in Columbus.

At least one district health commissioner and possibly two, if East Liverpool's request for permission to remain a separate health district in itself, will be appointed for Columbiana county when the new health organization is perfected.

The examinations to determine the fitness of applicants for the new positions will be held within a few weeks under supervision of the state civil service commission.

URGES MODIFICATION OF TARIFF POLICY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Abnormal conditions in world finance and trade will probably make it necessary for the Republican party to modify, in a measure for the present, its high protective policy, Senator Penrose, Republican of Pennsylvania, chairman of the senate finance committee which passes on tariff legislation, declared this afternoon in a statement.

It is planned to have the new machinery in readiness for operation within three months. When the new plant is in operation, it will be the largest of its kind in eastern Ohio. The ice plant operated by the concern has a daily output sufficient to meet the requirements of both local and adjacent territory. Last month 20 carloads of ice were shipped from the plant here to Cleveland, while during the summer shortage ice was supplied Canton, Akron and several nearby cities.

When Admiral Farragut missed his shave

WHEN ADMIRAL FARRAGUT lightened his ships to lead them boldly over a treacherous Mississippi River bar and fight the great battle of New Orleans, he worked without ceasing for ten nights and days, eating and sleeping when and where he could.

His shaving had to be postponed. Yet no amount of physical or mental work could dull the fighting edge of the man who said "Damn the torpedoes—go ahead!"—and the razor that he used was like him—time-tested in principle—keen-tempered, dependable—perfectly balanced. If Farragut's razor lacked any modern feature, it was simply the extra convenience and safety of the guarded and two-edged

An ordinance providing for the grading and construction of concrete gutters and curbing on Fifteenth street to Seventeenth street on Chester avenue was adopted by council.

REFORMED KIDNAPER GOES INTO BANKING

Pat Crowe as he looks today.

Pat Crowe, internationally known ten years ago as the kidnaper of Edward Cudahy, son of the Chicago packing king, will go to work in one of three Washington banks which have each offered him a job.

With a $50,000 reward on his head, Crowe eluded the police for six years, finally giving himself up in 1906. Since that time he has devoted himself to the rescue of erring men and the education of children. His case was presented to the Washington banks by Dr. E. E. Dudding, president of the Children's Relief society, and every banker to whom he told the story offered Crowe a job.

FEDERAL COURT WANTS MINTER

Allen H. Minter, alias Arthur Garrell, professional jail breaker and alleged burglar, under arrest in Steubenville charged with burglarizing two homes and wanted at Wellsville, O., and New Cumberland, W. Va., for robbery and jail breaking, has been claimed by the government and he will be taken to Columbus some day this week to face Judge Sater in U. S. court and answer to an indictment for failing to register for the selective service.

Minter was indicted by the federal grand jury at Columbus in June, 1918, and was awaiting trial when he made his third escape from the Jefferson county jail here. He was first arrested for impersonating an army officer and for the theft of a horse and buggy, but when it was determined that he had evaded the draft, he was turned over to the federal authorities.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Simon Loftus informed federal officials at Columbus several days ago of Minter's capture and he received instructions yesterday morning from U. S. Marshal M. Devanney to hold the prisoner at Steubenville pending issuance of a capias for his arrest. Deputy Loftus expects to take the prisoner to Columbus Wednesday or Thursday.

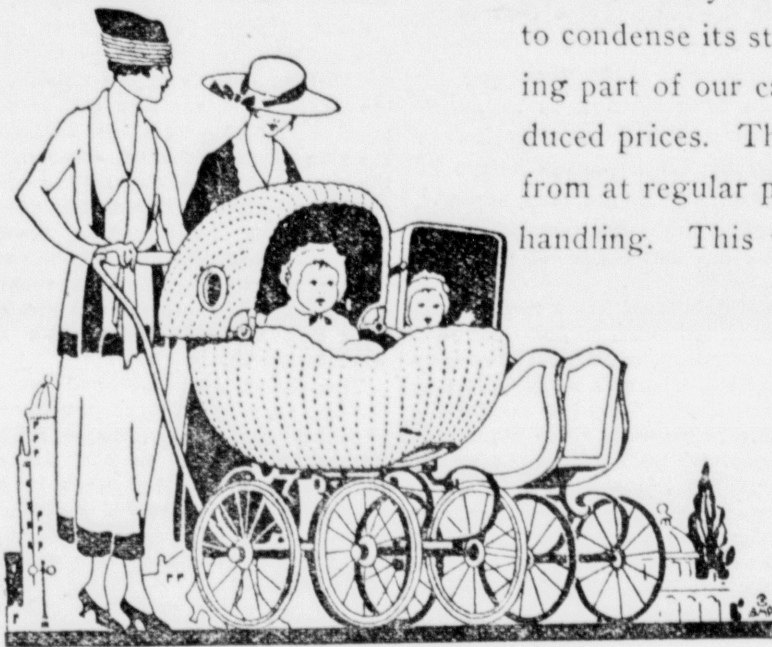

The Steubenville charges against Minter will await the disposition of the federal case. Minter, who made his escape from the county jail on three occasions, is still being kept in close confinement and under strong guard.

OPPOSE BRIDGE ACROSS STREET

Asserting that property owners near Fifteenth street were opposed to the construction of the overhead bridge from the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad shops here across Main street for the use of employees, and that it would lower property values there, Attorney W. A. O'Grady appeared before council Tuesday night when the ordinance granting the railroad company permission to build the bridge, was presented.

According to plans prepared by railroad officials, the bridge will be built directly over Main street at Fifteenth with the steps and landing in Fifteenth street. The railroad company is to re-curb the street at that point, in order to take care of the drainage.

Attorney O'Grady said he was voicing the sentiment of a number of property owners who did not look upon the building of the bridge with favor. He urged the construction of an underground passageway. P. T. Dunn, master mechanic at the shops here, said that an underground subway would not be as safe as the overhead bridge and would require a large opening in the street. O'Grady asked the city solons to instruct the city solicitor to apply for an injunction against the building of the bridge and when the solons refused to act in this matter, intimated that he himself would act.

Under suspended rules, the ordinance was adopted.

LEE SUPPORTS COAL MINERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—"The government cannot force miners to dig coal or men to move trains, not with all the soldiers in the world," declared W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, today. "If it can, then men are in a condition of involuntary servitude. It would mean that no man could quit his job if his employer were powerful enough to secure government intervention," Lee said.

The coal miners have been pledged the support of the four big railroad brotherhoods, should their threat to strike be carried out and the government attempt to work the mines, it became known today, although Mr. Lee refused to make a definite statement as to the action.

GLOOMY NEWS FOR SMOKERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Gloomy news for smokers.

The wives of several million farmers are out with the welcome W. C. T. U. to knife Lady Nicotine and rid the nation of her seductive charms.

The National Congress of Farm Women will open in Hagerstown, Md., today and will present a resolution to congress petitioning for the legislation to prohibit the growing of tobacco in the United States.

"Not that we think smoking a vice," explained Mrs. Benigna G. Dalb of Houston, Texas, secretary of the congress, "but we do feel that eating is more essential. If we're going to get enough to feed ourselves and Europe until Europe is rehabilitated, we'll have to produce more food. There are about 1,375,000 acres in this country devoted to tobacco growing. We want congress to have this immense acreage converted to the raising of food crops."

A TRIBUTE TO OUR BOYS.

East Liverpool will pay homage Friday to more than 1,200 of her soldiers, sailors and marines who so gallantly served Uncle Sam in the war to crush Prussianism.

Feeling under the deepest obligations to these brave lads, who did their "bit" to curb the aspirations of the autocratic rulers of Germany to dominate the world, East Liverpool will endeavor to partially repay them for sacrifices they made and the hardships they endured by the greatest demonstration in the history of the city. And mindful of the glorious cause these doughboys, gobs and "leathernecks" served, everybody will join in this homecoming celebration. Practically all business will suspend at 1 p. m., Friday, when the program will open with a military pageant in which every lad who responded to the call to the colors is expected to participate.

This will be East Liverpool's official "welcome home" to youths whose names are inscribed on her honor roll. It will be the city's greeting to the brave warriors who carried the flag of justice and of hope to the downtrodden nations of Europe.

And as a token of appreciation of the great service rendered mankind, East Liverpool will present each of her service men with a medal of honor, emblematic of her devotion to those who wore the uniform of the United States in the world's greatest war.

Let us make this homecoming celebration an occasion never to be forgotten.

THE FAULTS OF HUSBANDS.

A woman's magazine is conducting a prize contest in which wives are writing barrels of letters to tell of the worst fault of their respective husbands and how they helped him correct it.

This ought to interest men. What is the worst fault a husband can have, anyhow? According to many of these women, disorderliness takes the palm. They just leave their clothes around any old place for their wives to pick up. Usually, it seems, the wives go on picking them up for years and then the worm turns.

Then there are the husbands who lose their temper over trifles. There are the husbands who swear on any and all occasions, appropriate or inappropriate. Not but what most any woman can relish a good-sized exasperated swear-word when the occasion seems to call for it. But swearing at the dinner table, before guests or children, or swearing at the waiter or caddy in a public place, is different. Often this is husband's worst fault.

Then there is the husband who is always late, and the one who tries to hold his wife's taste in clothing down to the styles his mother wore when he was young, the husband who eats with loud crunches, and the husband who always brags to the guests about his good cooking, and the inattentive husband who always asks, "What?" and makes the wife repeat what she has said.

It is a long list and a sad one. One wonders what husbands would do in a similar contest giving them a chance to tell about their wives.

But when one has studied it in all its horrors, one is forced to the conclusion that take them on the whole, if this is the worst that can be said for them, American husbands are not so bad after all.

THE COILED SPRING.

The restlessness of the boys back from overseas has given no little concern to those who have tried to place them in jobs. It often proves that a man cannot go back to his old work, and tries half a dozen different lines before he seems to settle into anything comfortable and with any reasonable prospect of permanence.

A writer in the Woman's Home Companion quotes the principal of a business school as follows: "I'm willing to do what I can, but I don't know how to explain it. They seem utterly irresponsible. Talk about army discipline and what it does for a man—why, there's nothing to it."

To which another member of the Soldiers' Welfare Committee replies:

"You say that because you have never been under the strain of fighting or army discipline. Those men were 184 days under shell fire. They've been wounded. They were hungry and thirsty when you folks were playing at the game you called conservation. For two years and three months they were under a discipline which for sternness can be compared only to prison life, the discipline, just or unjust, by which men win wars. Think of them as tightly coiled springs, held down by an iron bar. When such a spring is released it shoots into the air, quivering. These men have been released, and are still quivering in body and soul. It will take time for them to steady themselves and to stand firm."

This is worth thinking about. And it is applicable to the people at large. The soldiers were held down more firmly than the civilians. But every man, woman and child knew the grip of the iron bar of war, and can understand that feeling of quivering release. This explains much of the seething turmoil of this last year. The discontent and chaos were only natural. But they are already settling. Steady, normal life is getting its grip. A little time, a little patience, a little tolerance, and everything will move onward steadily again, with conditions better than ever before.

WAGES AND LIVING EXPENSES.

The relation of income to cost of living is a question of perpetual interest, and of unusual value at this time when there are so many industrial controversies based on an effort to harmonize the two. The latest report of the federal Department of Labor, which presumably may be taken as authoritative, throws new light on the subject, and contains some surprises.

The report covers most of the big manufacturing industries. It shows that from 1913 to 1919 (or 1918 in cases where this year's figures are not obtainable) earnings per hour, have increased in the cotton industry 79 per cent, in the silk industry 91 per cent, in the woolen industry 93 per cent, in the lumber industry 94 per cent, in millwork 51 per cent, in the clothing industry 71 per cent, in the boot and shoe industry 47 per cent, in furniture-making 54 per cent, in cigar-making 52 per cent, and in the iron and steel industry, averaging all departments, 121 per cent.

NEW YORK LETTER

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—It is the custom of the Dutch Treat Club to invite a celebrity at their luncheons every Tuesday. Last week they invited an actor starring on Broadway who was surprised when he had to pay for his lunch himself before he sat down to it. He got even, however, by inviting the entire membership to see his play that night—on the same basis.

The Dutch Treat has a membership limited to 100 and it includes the most famous writers, artists, and novelists in America. There is no clubroom or are there dues. They just meet every Tuesday at Brown's Chop House, an old Broadway institution, opposite the Metropolitan Opera.

A member must attend once a month or have a good reason. If he fails he is dropped. There is no waiting list. A man must be asked to join the organization. There is always a celebrity present who is the guest of honor but he cannot speak standing. If he has anything to say he just takes sitting down and is never introduced with a "We have with us today—"

There are no rules among the Dutch Treaters except that there must never be a snob among them. A man who shows the slightest sign of snobishness is just about as popular as five o'clock in the morning. The club was started by a handful of writers about eight years ago.

Among them was Jack London. They just happened to drop in at Brown's at the same hour and finally collected at the same table. There came and when they outgrew the table a room was reserved for them upstairs.

John Drinkwater, a recent guest, declared that he had never seen such an interesting body of men together at one time. One is liable to see Robert W. Chambers, Howard Chandler Christy, Irvin Cobb and Will Irwin at one table and at the adjoining table others equally celebrated.

Since Cobb has become a worm-hole specialist some rare discussions have come up about the habits of worms. George Broadhurst declares that Anastasia, Cobb's favorite worm, is practically worthless now since Cobb wrote a story referring to her recently. If you want to keep a worm hard at work, never praise it in the public prints, Mr. Broadhurst announced.

One of the interesting sights of New York is the Sunday crowds that flock to the Flushing Bay shore during the summer. A thick woods runs down to the water and it is crowded with people who do not speak a word of English. It is the day of rest for the men, women and children who toil all week on the little Long Island truck farms. They go on Saturday night and sleep in their wagons so they can be up at sun up for a plunge in the ocean. Everybody is bubbling over with happiness. They bring their own simple meals. The only complaint they have is the lack of a bottle of beer. They used to bring beer with them but it is too expensive now. Incidentally a New York paper tells of many Norwegians, who work on these truck farms, getting ready to return to Norway where under the prohibition bill recently enacted in their country light wines and beers were permitted.

It is quite remarkable how a song can gain popularity merely by its being sung in a good show by a good performer. Eddie Canton singing "My Baby's Arms" in the Follies one week shot the New York sales up to 15,000 over the previous week. That is why Tin Pan Alley puts out the plush chair and the fat cigars when a stage singer drops in for a call.

However, the song must have quality or it will not be sung for the singer knows that in the end he will lose. There are some actors who pick up extra money mentioning various articles. One got $100 a week for referring to a certain make of talking machine until the author of the play dropped in one night and heard the line. He almost stopped the show and it was out after that.

THE MAY BASKET

By GENEVA A. ELDREDGE

Scent of apple blossoms filled Cynthia Smith's living room, a clumsy bee tumbled up and down the outside of the screen door, and now and then a swallow darted across the sunshine, his blue wings glistening. Away down the street sounded the rat-tat of a drum, and Cynthia heard the patter of children's feet running toward the town square. Still she sat tense and upright in the old-fashioned rocking chair, her mouth drawn in a straight hard line, her eyes fixed upon the work in her hands.

The screen door squeaked on its spring and a round-faced, brown-eyed little boy squeezed in, his eyes filled with surprise when he saw her sitting there so stiff, her work in her hands, and he stammered a little as he said: "Wh-wh, Aunt Cynthia, ain't you going to meet the train and see the p-parade?"

Soft and quick came her answer: "No, dear, not today." "But Aunt Cynthia, they ain't goin' to be no more p-parade days, an' I got on my white suit, an' mother thought maybe you'd like to have a little boy what was all spic and span to go wiv you."

And his little face grew wistful and troubled. He had never seen an Aunt Cynthia like this before, so straight and strange.

He meant to know before he left just why she was staying home the day everyone else in town was going down to welcome the boys from France. So he crept up close and whispered: "Is it 'cause Joe ain't comin', auntie?" Tears sprang to her eyes as she gathered the little spic and span boy close.

"Yes, Teddie boy, that's just why auntie isn't going. She can't bear it."

Now that Teddie was sure he felt that he ought to say something to help make auntie happier, so he said as he stroked her face with his fat little hand: "Never mind, auntie; I've got a secret and maybe tonight 'bout dark you'll know it. Maybe right 'fore supper, maybe right after, anyway, don't you come out doors right that time, will you?"

And auntie promised to stay in the house. Then hearing his mother calling he scampered away leaving Aunt Cynthia alone with her thoughts. Slowly she closed her eyes and in imagination saw the town square filled with people, the train pulling in filled with returning soldiers, the happy greetings, and far and faint she heard the band and the cheering.

The hot tears trickled slowly down her face as she whispered, "And mine reported missing; my boy, who was the pride of my heart!" And then Teddie's happy little face seemed to shine out, and she remembered what a comfort he had been all the weary months, "and now he is coming to hang me a May basket, bless his dear little heart, and I must cheer up for his sake. I think I will plan a little surprise myself."

So she went into her dining room and set the pretty table, bringing in great bunches of apple blossoms to decorate it with until the room looked like fairyland in the pink and white dress. She frosted little round cakes and made an iced drink for the crystal glasses, and almost before she knew it, twilight came drifting down. The drums had ceased their rat-tat and happy voices called to one another in the street. "It's almost time for Teddie and his secret," she thought as she patted her hair into place. Then she heard steps tiptoeing up the board walk and a child's quick panting breath, and she smiled the old-time glad smile that she used to greet the boy with who was missing tonight when he came to hang May baskets at the very same door.

When two fat fists pounded hard on the screen door she waited only long enough for a small boy to hide before she opened the door, to find a dainty little basket, all fringed and festooned and fairly bursting with candy kisses, setting on the step.

"Why, how surprised I am," she said. "Who could have left this beautiful little basket here? Surely it's a mistake; some little boy must have thought Susie Grimes lived here."

Just then a small boy in white wriggled out from behind the snowball bush and called breathlessly, "No, no, Aunt Cynthia, 'tain't no 'stake, it's my secret and some more of it is 'hind the catap's tree. You come see." But just then a khaki-clad figure sprang out with wide-open arms, and then Ted's secret was out.

"Oh, Joe," cried Aunt Cynthia as she wept in his arms, "how you must have felt not to find me at the train to meet you."

"That's all right, mother; I don't blame you under the circumstances. When Ted told me his secret I thought I'd wait and surprise you."

"Some May basket all around, hey? Say, Ted, it looks like frosted cakes and lemonade in the dining room; let's hurry for mess."

And as mother and son wiped the tears of gladness from their eyes, a little voice shrilled out: "You won't never cry no more on p-parade day, will you, Aunt Cynthia?" (Copyright, 1919, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

AT the Theatres

"FIRES OF FAITH" AT STRAND THEATRE

An inspiring photoplay is the superb Paramount pictures "Fires of Faith," the verdict of all who have seen that splendid production at the Strand Theatre. Incidental to the development of an unusually appealing love story, Salvation Army scenes at home and on the fighting line vest the subject with an added interest and serve to make the presentation perhaps the most notable seen here in many years.

The story deals with a young woman of the slums who is reclaimed through the Salvation Army doughnut girl. The photoplay never lags an instant, for there is plenty of action in every scene.

The principal players are Catherine Calvert, Eugene O'Brien, Ruby de Remer, Theodore Roberts, Herbert Standing, Edythe Chapman and others. The story was written by Charles E.

Whittaker, and directed by Edward Jose, one of the ablest producers in the country. Wednesday is the last showing of "Fires of Faith."

"ROBIN HOOD" IS BOOKED AT CERAMIC

One of the coming attractions at the Ceramic theatre in the near future, the date as yet undetermined, will be "Robin Hood" by the DeKoven Opera company. This company comprises a splendid chorus of voices both male and female considerably above the average, and a strong cast of principals, ensembles and soloists.

The part of Robin Hood is sung by Albert Farr, a New York tenor of much renown. Miss Alice May Carley, playing Allan-a-Dale and Miss Katherine Galloway, playing opposite Robin Hood, a beautiful young woman with a brilliant soprano voice, have won much praise in these parts. The comedy angle is taken by the sheriff and his accomplice, Ed Andrews and Sol Solomon. Members of the New York cast included Miss Galloway, Elsa Thomas, Harriet Duck, John McSweeney, George Shields, James Stevens and Miss Carley.

FEATURE OFFERING AT AMERICAN THEATRE

The triangle is discarded in the new William Russell picture, "Sacred Silence," a fourth person is involved in the tense dramatic situation which is the theme of the story. This is the first William Fox production in which Mr. Russell appears as the star. It will come to the American Theatre Wednesday.

"Sacred Silence" deals with an absorbing phase of social life at an army post and is based upon that startling stage play, "The Deserter," which had so successful career on Broadway. A supporting cast of unusual excellence is announced for this drama.

It takes just about an "instant" to make a delightful cup of Postum—a teaspoonful in the cup with hot water added, sugar and cream to taste.

RUSSIAN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA COMING

When the Humanitarian Cult in New York, one of the influential bodies in that city, determined to arrange for what they termed "The Greatest Concert of the Age," the famous Russian Symphony orchestra was engaged, which is announced to appear here at the Ceramic theater on Nov. 15, under the direction of May Beale and George M. Thompson.

The largest available auditorium in New York city is the Madison Square Garden, where this concert took place, and it will go down on record as the most stupendous aggregation of musical talent ever gathered together on one program, outside of some of the war benefits which have been given on such a gigantic scale. In addition to the orchestra, conducted by Modest Altschuler, there appeared Mme. Schumann-Heink, the noted contralto; Mme. Frances Alda, the great soprano; Giovanni Martini, tenor, and Giuseppe de Luca, baritone, all from the Metropolitan Opera House. As though this great quartet were not enough there were thrown in for good measure a group of violin solos by Mischa Elman and piano numbers by Percy Grainger.

Such a feast of good things brought out an audience of thousands, and thunderous applause greeted the different soloists and the orchestral numbers. There was the familiar patriotic touch when the program opened with "The Star Spangled Banner," and later on when the new "Hymn of Free Russia" was played without announcement.

Although it was not even composed ten months ago, the audience gave proof that the Gretschanoff song, so simple and yet so stirring, is already familiar, for every one rose to his feet and remained standing still till the number had been played three times. This impressive Russian anthem, not so well known here, will be played at the coming concert.

CITY WILL GET SHARE OF RED CROSS FUNDS

Fifty Per Cent of Membership Fees Returned Here.

PEACE-TIME PROGRAM

Work of Mercy Agency Is Outlined by Dr. Fer-rand.

With fifty per cent of the membership fees received in the third Red Cross Roll Call drive in this city November 2-11 to be expended in East Liverpool, the part of the local Red Cross is to play in the after-war activities of the mercy organization will depend largely upon the number of members enrolled here.

In discussing the peacetime program of the Red Cross officials of northern Ohio last week in Cleveland, Dr. Livingston Ferrand, leader of the peacetime Red Cross said:

"One great important fact must now be made clear to every one and that is this: The war task of the Red Cross is not ended. With the demobilization of the last regiments we can see the close certain chapters of Red Cross work, but until every soldier so discharged has found a place in his home community, wherever that may be, there still remains a Red Cross responsibility.

"And still another task born of the war cannot be turned aside. The Red Cross work in France, Italy and Belgium can now safely be turned over to those countries themselves to complete; but in Eastern Europe, ravaged by battle for nearly five years, there comes a call which America must heed. And to that task the Red Cross proposes to put its hand during the coming year.

"I have spoken to you of the past and of the present but what of the future of this great organization. That question brings us straight back to this fact—that the war has accentuated and sharpened our realization of certain conditions the existence of which has for centuries caused the distress of the world. For the greatest contributing factor in disturbing the

Big Lot of Hay Fever Jokes

But Kentucky Man Says—"People Who Belong to Hay Fever Colony are Kidding Themselves."

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy Was Given a Chance.

"Yes, there's a real NINTY-NINE per cent effective remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city.

"But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Mentholized Arcline and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and sniff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show up is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Better Class of Pharmacists" who dispense Mentholized Arcline say it will greatly modify any attack even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin.

Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a pint.

7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

If Your Nerves Are Shaky Because of Over-Indulgence in Tobacco or Alcohol or by Excess of Any Kind, Bio-Feren is What You Need Right Away.

Don't grow old before your time, don't let nervousness wreck your happiness or chances in life. The man with strong, steady nerves is full of vigor, energy, ambition and confidence.

You can have nerves of steel, firm step, new courage and keep mind by putting your blood and nerves in first-class shape with mighty Bio-Feren, a new discovery, inexpensive and efficient.

Men and women who get up so tired in the morning that they have to drag themselves to their daily labor will in just a few days arise with clear mind, definite purpose and loads of ambition.

All you have to do is to take two Bio-Feren tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—7 a day for 7 days—then reduce to one after each meal until all are gone.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't doubled, if your mind isn't keener and eyes brighter, if you don't feel twice as ambitious as before, any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely.

Bio-Feren is without doubt the greatest remedy for nervous, run-down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity, save a supply on hand—sell many packages.

happiness of mankind reduces in the last instance to questions of physical well-being, to problems of health and disease.

"For twenty years there have been growing up in this country many private movements of the prevention of this or that preventable disease. But in the building up of all these movements we found that they become inextricably entangled. For the last ten years leaders in this field have been dreaming of the possibility of co-ordinating them. Now that the war is ended there appears by reason of the war, an organization that has the power to do this thing which for years has needed to be done but could not be done. That organization is the American Red Cross.

"Without the slightest degree grasping or usurping the field of any other organization we can get behind these bodies and insert a new kind of cement, a new kind of binding material that will hold them together so that they will find that they are forming one great forward movement for the welfare of the country.

"The highest activity in this field which the Red Cross has already undertaken is the great nursing program. The entire modern health movement depends upon the adequate development of the visiting nurse. We are doing the most important thing first. We purpose presently to take the next step and then the next step and in every way in which it may be possible to utilize the energy of our great organization to make our own country a better place to live in and to save for future generations the benefits which our men fought and died to win."

RUNAWAY MONKEY JAMS SELF IN ORGAN PIPE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. — This city is proud of its great civic auditorium and its massive organ therein. That pride is justified.

But the massive organ emitted strange squeaks and chatter when a monkey—Nucie by name—broke away from an exhibit in the auditorium and, after a merry chase from rafter to rafter and rope to rope, secluded herself in a huge pipe of the organ.

An attempt to play the instrument brought forth only strange sounds, mingled with the monkey's chatter and squeaks while she was incarcerated.

How You Can Save on Cream

INSTEAD of that expensive little bottle of cream you buy when you want "extra good" cereal or coffee, use Every Day Milk.

It looks like cream and is very much like cream.

No wonder! For out of over a quart of rich milk most of the water has been taken, leaving all the rich goodness, all the nourishment, and this is put in a bright, new tin and sterilized—safe—clean—pure—delicious.

Now all this double richness you can buy for about what a bottle of milk costs—and for about half what a tiny bottle of cream costs!

Be independent of the ice man and the milk man. Every day use Every Day—the safe and pure milk.

Famo Stops Seborrhea The Dandruff Disease

No other hair remedy even remotely resembles FAMO.

FAMO kills the dandruff germ and stops the unhealthy flow from the sebaceous glands.

Every ingredient in FAMO is well known to physicians.

But none of these ingredients were ever before applied to saving the hair.

Science perfected FAMO in one of the oldest pharmaceutical houses in Detroit—famous for its laboratories which supply physicians all over the world with medical goods.

FAMO not only kills the seborrheic microbe but it makes the scalp and hair as clean as that of a baby.

It ends all itching of the scalp.

Even where baldness has already appeared (unless the hair roots are absolutely dead) FAMO will encourage and stimulate the growth of new hair.

Many women say FAMO has caused their hair to grow from four to six inches.

FAMO retards grayness and strengthens the natural color. It contains no alcohol to dry the scalp and produce gray hairs.

It makes the hair luxuriant and lustrous and if there is a tendency to weakness FAMO intensifies it.

FAMO should be used by every member of the family.

It can safely be used on the head of the baby as there is nothing in FAMO that will harm the tenderest scalp.

Used on the head of growing children it will make the most unruly hair soft and easy to comb.

Young women find FAMO a peculiarly fine hair dressing. It makes the hair fluffy and full of life.

If you have dandruff you have seborrhea.

Seborrhea is as dangerous to the hair as pyorrhea is to the teeth.

So if you have dandruff not a day should be lost in applying FAMO.

Not until FAMO has cleared your scalp of the deadly dandruff bacilli is your hair safe.

Even if you have no dandruff now you should use FAMO so that dandruff will be kept away and to make the hair fluffy and beautiful.

FAMO comes in two sizes—35 cents, and an extra large bottle at $1. It is sold at all toilet goods counters.

Applications at all the better barber shops. Your money will be refunded if you are not satisfied.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrheic excretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

NOT MANY PARTIES FOR HALLOWE'EN NIGHT

Many Halloween parties are featuring this week's activities in Newell. Although Newell will not have any kind of a general celebration of the night, citizens from this side of the river will join with the East Liverpool people in extending the returned service men a reception next Friday afternoon and evening.

Because of the big celebration in East Liverpool but few parties have been planned for Halloween night, Friday. However many parties have been arranged for during the rest of the week.

Tuesday evening the P. H. C. entertained at a Halloween party in the Aaron building. Thursday evening the Daughters of Rebekah, auxiliary organization of Clarke lodge No. 447, I. O. O. F., will entertain at a Halloween affair. The Newell high school has also planned for an entertainment in the school building Thursday evening. In addition to this a number of home parties have been announced.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE SOUGHT IN COUNTY

Hancock county may soon have a public health nurse as the result of negotiations which are now being conducted between the home service section of the Hancock county chapter of the American Red Cross and applicants for the position.

Miss Florence Moss, secretary of the county chapter, announced Tuesday that she is corresponding with a nurse which the Red Cross plans to bring here. The nurse will devote most of her time to work among the schools.

The public health nurse, according to plans, will probably establish her headquarters at Weirton or New Cumberland. The need of help of this kind is not so bad in Newell and Chester as it is in the lower end of Hancock county, where the foreign population is large.

There is a scarcity of nurses for this kind of work, Miss Moss declares. The nurse which the Red Cross propose to bring here will be engaged on three months' probation with the understanding that if her services prove to be satisfactory within that time she is to be employed permanently.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts Before Breakfast if Your Back Hurts or Bladder is Troubling You.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

WHO WANTS THE SALOON BACK?What Roosevelt Thought of the German-American Alliance

"The United States has struck an effective blow against the Huns within our gates by unanimously voting to repeal the charter of the German-American Alliance.

The Alliance has been thoroughly mischievous in its activities. It has acted in the interest of Germany and against the interest of America. It has tried to perpetuate Germanism as a separate Nationality with a separate language in the United States. It has attacked our allies; it has encouraged disloyalty.

It was decorated by the Kaiser for its service to Germany. It has endeavored to prostitute our politics to German needs. I have personally had the honor of being specially singled out by it for attack.

It received money from the Brewers' Association for the campaign against Prohibition.

At the time when the campaign of German frightfulness is in full blast, when the Prussianized Germany of the Hohenzollerns is steadily adding to its list of literally unforgiveable offenses against civilization.

JUSTICE FREES ACCUSED MAN

Upon charges of threatening to kill, filed by his brother-in-law, W. W. Shoeshine, a local tin mill worker, residing on Second street, was arraigned before Justice A. G. Allison Tuesday afternoon. Because of insufficient evidence to sustain the charges, the accused was dismissed from custody.

Shoeshine was arrested by Chief of Police J. R. Dolby, Tuesday morning, after Brown, who lives near by, had filed charges against him, declaring that Shoeshine had threatened "to get him." Brown also sought to have his brother-in-law put under a peace bond, but as the charge could not be proven, the security was not ordered.

According to testimony brought out at the trial, a 15-year old son of Mrs. Shoeshine, who is a sister of Mrs. Brown, has been making his home with the Brown family for a number of years. The lad is a son of Mrs. Shoeshine by a former marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Shoeshine are alleged to have attempted to induce the son to return to live with them but Mr. and Mrs. Moore objected and the lad expressed his desire to stay at the Moore home.

This caused trouble between the two families. Several witnesses were subpoenaed in the case but the court decided that there was no evidence to show that Shoeshine attempted to harm Moore and the case was dismissed.

MINTER IDENTIFIED BY DEPUTY SHERIFF FICKES

The man arrested at Steubenville last Friday, who gave the name of Arthur Garrell was identified by Deputy Sheriff William Fickes, of Hancock county as Allen H. Minter, who made his getaway from the county jail at New Cumberland on October 7. The Steubenville authorities refused to turn the prisoner over to Fickes, claiming that more serious charges were held against him in Ohio than that for which he was charged in Hancock county.

Minter, at the November term of grand jury, which convenes next Monday, may be indicted for burglary, in connection with the robbery of the Chester Hardware store here, and also for jail breaking. Three other prisoners, Arthur Snyder, of East Liverpool and two negroes, claiming Wellsville as their home made their escape with Minter.

The prisoner has been taken to Columbus and turned over to the federal authorities. He admitted to having entered the Chester hardware store after a lot of the booty had been located in a Pittsburgh pawn shop.

Don't Neglect Your Breakfast

The Fear of Indigestion Often Prompts One to Start the Day Wrong. Eat What You Like Take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and You're Safe.

Breakfast offers many of the most savory dishes of all the things we eat. And yet more people than otherwise go without breakfast save a roll and cup of coffee for fear of indigestion. If you feel like a fried egg, or some buckwheat or sausage for breakfast go to it and follow with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. You'll have no trouble. The average person who neglects breakfast will be hungry before noon. Most men smoke to kill the appetite, or munch on something to carry on till lunch time. An empty stomach under these conditions is not storing up energy, but on the contrary, is susceptible to many influences that may work hardship for the next meal.

It is advisable to eat three good meals a day and digest them. If the stomach seems to be weak, to help it or give it assistance is the rational thing to do. Try a good breakfast and follow it with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you'll soon learn that regularity of meals follows a natural tendency, not an acquired one. You will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on sale in almost all drug stores throughout the United States and Canada.

Overdoing

How American Women Break Down

Owing to the modern manner of living and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, they overdo, and as a consequence develop ailments peculiar to their sex, as is indicated by backache, headache, nervousness, the blues, displacements and weakness.

Women who find themselves in this condition should slow down, and depend upon that good old fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to restore them to health and strength, for there is no other remedy known that so quickly restores a healthy, normal condition.

Here is the Story of a Most Remarkable Recovery

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night, and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from me, so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

STATE TO HEAR REQUEST FOR HEALTH UNIT

East Liverpool's Petition Will Be Considered This Week.

REPLY TO THOMPSON

Have Necessary Facilities Here to Meet All Requirements.

Request of the East Liverpool board of health for permission to remain a separate health district when the new Hughes health act becomes effective January 1st, will be given a hearing before the state health commission in Columbus this week.

A reply to the formal request filed with the commission a short time ago by City Solicitor R. G. Thompson has been received here from A. W. Freeman, Columbus, state commissioner of health. Commissioner Freeman acknowledged receipt of the petition from this city and stated that the matter would be given consideration at the next regular meeting of the state health board.

In view of the complete facilities now available to the health board here for safeguarding the health of the community, East Liverpool's request to remain a separate health district should be honored by all means, Solicitor Thompson declared Tuesday.

The resolution to seek permission to remain intact under the new law was adopted by the board of health October 14.

419 EGGS FROM 20 HENS IN 30 DAYS

Mr. Dougherty Got This Result in October. Plan is Easily Tried.

"I tried Don Sung and the results were far past any expectations. I got 419 eggs in 30 days from 20 hens while moulting. I think this is wonderful, as they hardly laid at all before while moulting."—Frank Dougherty, 5940 E. 11th St., Indianapolis.

Mr. Dougherty bought $1 worth of Don Sung tablets in October and wrote the above letter in November. Figure his profit on 35 dozen eggs from hens that formerly laid little or nothing.

This may sound too good to be true, but it costs nothing to find out. We'll make you the same offer we made him. Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter what the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 30 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

BOTH ELEVENS WELL MATCHED

Grands Expect to Counteract Effect of Veterans' Weight by Speedy Backfield--Both Average .500.

Sunday afternoon at Alliance The Sebring Tigers and the Alliance Goat Hills played to a scoreless tie. Both teams evidently were about evenly matched.

The Sebring Tigers defeated the Veterans of Foreign Wars at Sebring by the score of 19 to 0. The Alliance Goat Hills downed the Grands, at Alliance, in the local team's opening game by the score of 24 to 0.

Judging from this dope then the Veterans of Foreign Wars should be about one touchdown better than the Grands whom they oppose for the championship of the city next Friday afternoon at West End park, the first event on the athletic program to be carried out in connection with the Homecoming exercises for East Liverpool's returned service men.

But this is the year of dope upssets. The Cincy Reds were the first to mess it up by administering a thorough lashing to the White Sox. According to said dope, Pop Warner's Pitt Panthers were still unbeatable but Syracuse would not have it so and proceeded to neatly trim the Panthers' nails. Syracuse was immediately acclaimed excellent material for championship laurels. W. & J. continued the slaughter by overturning the newly erected idol. And Georgia Tech was the betting favorite against the dethroned Pitts but did not live up to reputation. And in Ohio, Miami, leader in conference honors for three years without defeat, was given a beating by Oberlin college, a team which was never figured in the running.

And even though the dope point to the Vets as winners, the Grands may surprise the dopsters by beating them.

The two teams which will battle for district honors Friday afternoon have equal averages so far this season, although the Veterans have played twice as many games as their opponents for honors. They have won two and lost two while the Grands have won one and lost one. The Vets defeated Monaca in their first game here then lost to Sebring, next beat East Palestine, and then lost to Martin's Ferry, a percentage of .500.

The Grands lost their initial struggle to the Goat Hills at Alliance, 24 to 0; and raised their average by downing the Cubs here Sunday, 6-0.

So there's the actual figures. The Veterans may go a little more than half their opponents in weight but the latter outfit claims more speed in backfield by means of which they expect to equalize tactics.

SPORTING GOSSIP

The high cost of punching has hit the glove wielders. All the scrapping fellows who know how to deal a mean wallop and are dead anxious to do so to pull in a few clinkers are finding tough going to meet the demands of the promoters. We are not hearing so much these days about the holdup scrappers--the promoters are edging into the limelight.

The specific case which prompts this narrative concerns four persons. One is a promoter, Dominic Tortorich of New Orleans. The others are boxers--Pete Herman, bantamweight champion; Pat Moore of Memphis and Joe Lynch of New York, and their respective managers. Now to the holdup stuff. Tortorich signed Champion Herman to fight for him on the afternoon of Thanksgiving in the Louisiana auditorium at New Orleans. He guaranteed Pete $7,500 for his win, lose, or draw. Then it was up to the promoter to land an opponent for the champion. He went after Pat Moore. Moore was simply tickled to death at the chance for the title. He continued to be pleased until Tortorich wrote out the contract. Then he wasn't tickled any more.

All the promoter demanded was that Moore box Herman twenty rounds for 50 per cent of the gate after the first $12,000 had been put aside to pay off Herman his $7,500 and Tortorich $4,500, which was for "expenses incurred incident to making the match." If the bout drew $13,000, and that is the largest amount that the New Orleans club has drawn for a contest, Moore would receive the huge total of 500 smackers for his twenty rounds' work.

But that isn't all. The promoter apparently is planning to feather the nest for the future, for the contract also stipulated that if the champion is dethroned the man who turns the trick must pay him 10 per cent of all his earnings as champion.

There will be no Herman-Moore fight on Thanksgiving. As for Joe Lynch, the same conditions are demanded. It is understood that Lynch also is balking and won't accept the terms.

St. Mary's College in California, boasts the smallest and lightest eleven on the gridiron today. Not a man on this unusual team weighs more than 110 pounds, or is more than 61 inches in height. Billy Kelly, who rears his proud height of five feet and who balances the scales at 100 pounds, is captain. Charles Freitas is the coach and is eager to match his proteges with any team its size and weight in the country, stipulating only that the team must represent a college. Freitas insists that this is not a catch, but a real sporting proposition.

The tiny dais long since tired of faking for the varsity eleven, not to mention carrying bags, fetching sweaters here and there for the giants of the first string men. Occasional tickets to the games dropped like manna upon the devoted hero worshippers; but little lasting fame and glory is to be won by rubbing down the crack halfback after he has starred in a game or carrying a grip five paces in the rear of the star fullback.

"Early this season the 'great idea' occurred to Kelly. He was trudging stoically from 'chem' to 'trig' one afternoon when he suddenly flung both hands into the air and shrieked 'Eureka!' Then, seeing Henri Artiguez, he said: 'You're my right guard.' Artiguez looked at his pal pityingly and said: 'All right, old boy, it will be cooler tonight. Don't let the heat get you.'"

"No, Henri," said Kelly, "I'm on the level about this. I'm going to start the smallest football team in the country. We'll get one of the fellows to coach us and we'll get into the game with a snap. Why, we'll challenge California and Stanford and Washington and any one that will play us. It will be a great idea."

There is nothing quite as infectious and enthusiasm, and Kelly went about the campus buttonholing every little chap he saw. The idea gained favor, and within twenty-four hours a squad was ready to report. It became so popular that certain restrictions had to be imposed to add a touch of exclusiveness to the team. No aid was to be had from the athletic funds, so the little fellows collected $10 from the candidates for the team. They spent $9 for a football and the other dollar for ice cream.

Earl Caddock, holder of the wrestling championship, has sent word to Jack Curley, through Gene Melady of Omaha, that he had decided to return to the mat. Caddock announced his retirement from wrestling last winter while he was working in France with the army. Since his return to this country he has been on a ranch in the mountains of Wyoming. On learning of Caddock's return to wrestling Jack Curley immediately sent him word to prepare to meet the winner of the bout between Stecher and Lewis, which is to be contested in Madison Square Garden on November 3. The Stecher-Lewis match will be a finish.

George (Babe) Ruth, champion home run hitter of the world, wants a raise next spring. Before leaving for Los Angeles Saturday night he stated he would present his demand for $20,000 salary next year.

"I will not play with the Red Sox," he declared, "unless I get $20,000. I feel that I made a bad move last year when I signed a three-year contract to play for $30,000. The Boston club realized much on my value and I think that I am entitled to twice as much as my contract calls for."

Ruth, who plans to make an indefinite stay on the Pacific coast, said that he did not expect to hear from President Harry M. Frazee, who was here yesterday, and did not see Ruth and had nothing to say about baseball before leaving for New York last night.

Minor League franchises instead of seeking angles are going to be in demand, judging from this story of a struggle for the right to operate a club in Akron, Ohio, next year, as it appears in a news dispatch from the Ohio city. Open warfare between prospective promoters of professional baseball in Akron next summer is indicated in the announcement that Ralph Lattimore, manager last season of the Akron Gay-Lords, has made tentative arrangements for getting Akron a berth in a Class B circuit to be formed among cities of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana.

Bob Read and Joe Carr of Columbus are behind the new league and according to reports, have made practically a sure thing of it. Cities which are expected to enter are Dayton, Springfield, Youngstown, Canton, Erie, Richmond and Port Wayne. Akron is mentioned as the city which will have the eighth berth with Lattimore as manager of the team.

Should the dope on the new circuit prove correct, Akron is almost sure to see a lively scramble between Lattimore and the promoters of the Akron Exhibition Company, Charles Kid Skelley and Frank Doyle. The company was organized at a capitalization of $400,000 to bring Class AA ball to Akron, and is now proceeding rapidly toward that goal.

Arrangements have been made for building a modern ball park, and steps are being taken for obtaining a franchise either in the American Association or International League.

Lattimore also has obtained ground for a ball field and has started work on having the diamond laid out.

WATCH OUT FOR INDIAN TEAM TIP TO FANS

Forest City Eleven After Title Held by Thorpe's Bulldogs.

BACKED BY CAPITAL

Former College Stars Go to Make Up Roster of Prospective Champs.

"Watch the Cleveland pros." That's the tip Ohio football fans are handing out. For the Forest City Eleven after the world's professional grid title held for the last fifteen years by either the Massillon, O., Tigers or the Canton Bulldogs.

The Cleveland team, incomplete at this time, tackled the Massillon crew in the first game of the season and managed to hold Massillon to a 3 to 0 score. The fact that the Clevelanders prevented the ferocious Tigers from scoring a touchdown speaks well for the Clevelanders.

Jimmy O'Donnell, manager of professional grid teams for years, is piloting the new aggregation known as the Indians. He is backed by plenty of capital and has gone after material for his team in a comprehensive way. For a month previous to the opening of the season O'Donnell had a man touring the country, lining up the men he wanted.

Here are the stars who have worked out with the team so far this season. The team, selected from these men, averages about 175 pounds.

The men who have been working out so far are: Ends, Pautis, Pennsylvania; Eckley, Cornell; Allhouse, Pittsburgh; Sibert, United States army; Lowe, Fordham, and Murray, United States army. Tackles, Pearlman, Pittsburgh; Miles, Washington and Lee; Tressel, Georgetown. Guards, Zigler, Pennsylvania; Turk, Pittsburgh; Anderson and Stahl, Center, Pierotti, Washington and Lee; Backs, Cody, Georgetown; Gordon, Brown; Joy, Holy Cross; Sweetland, Washington and Lee; McMahon, Washington and Lee; Hebron, Carnegie Tech; Mattern, Minnesota; Drummy, Tufts; Scott, Lafayette; Handley, Pittsburgh.

After its defeat by Massillon the Cleveland team took on the Chicago Hammonds of Hammond, Ind., and beat them 6 to 0. Gordon was the big star of the game. The two teams are booked to play a return game Thanksgiving day in Chicago. But the games that are interesting the Cleveland bunch most are the ones to be played with Canton and Massillon. The second game with Massillon is scheduled for Armistice day in Cleveland.

According to report from Hod Eller's home town in Danville, Ill., he will not return to his job as a member of the fire department in that town, but will accept a position as salesman for an automobile concern in the neighboring town of Champaign.

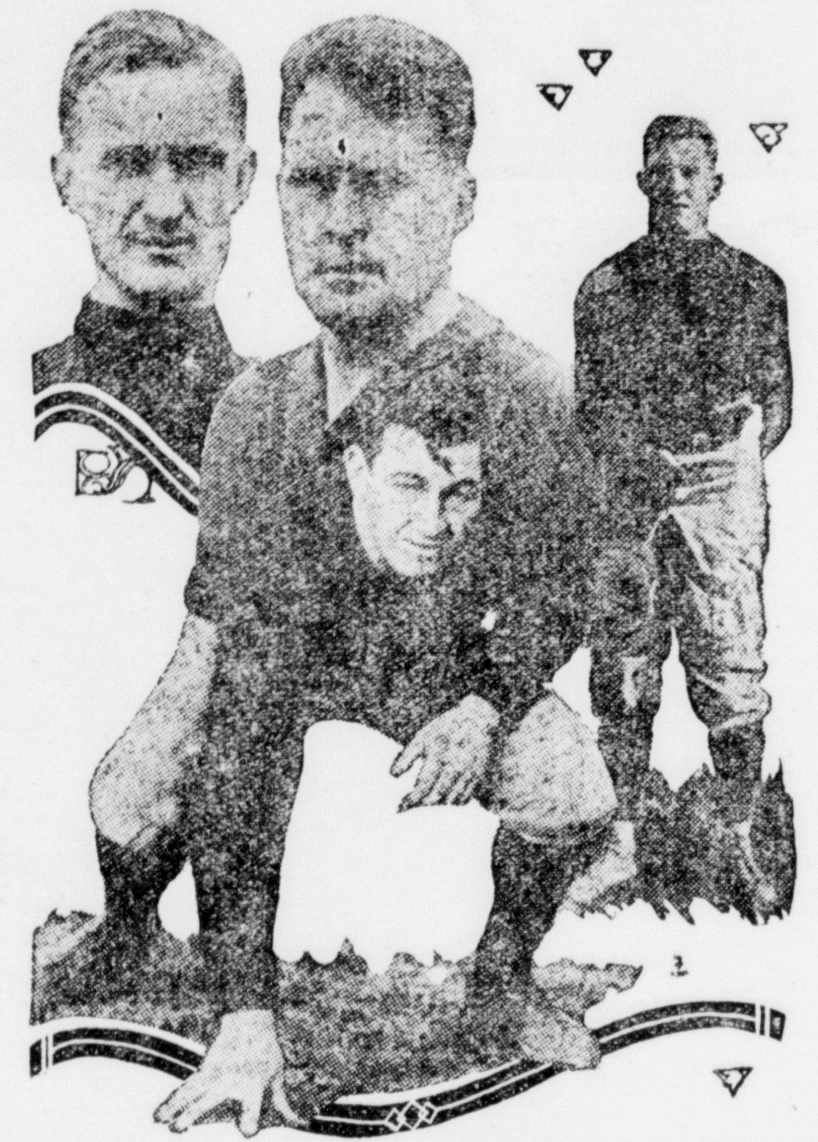

DE HART'S PLAYING PITT'S BAROMETER

Captain De Hart.

The most notable feature of the terrific beating Syracuse handed the famous Pittsburgh eleven recently was the off-color playing of Captain De Hart of the Pitt crew. Pitt fans are positive that, with De Hart playing in form, the result would have been different. "When De Hart is right, we win," say they. The fans haven't lost hope, however, and predict that De Hart and the rest of the Pitt team will be heard from before the season's over.

CLEVELAND BUILDING UP TEAM TO COP WORLD'S PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL TITLE

Cleveland, nosed out in its efforts to land a pennant in baseball, is just now figuring some on landing a championship in football. A professional grid team is being lined up by Jimmy O'Donnell, manager of professional teams for years, which can cope with Massillon and Canton, the teams that have held the world title for years and years. With the lineup of stars incomplete, the Cleveland aggregation held Massillon to a 3 to 0 score in the first game of the year. The fact that it kept the famous Tigers from scoring a touchdown speaks well for the Forest City crew. The teams clash again in Cleveland Armistice day. Among the stars representing Cleveland are Pautis of Pennsylvania, Sweetland and Pierotti of Washington and Lee, Gus Zigler of Pennsylvania, Cody of Georgetown, Gordon of Brown and Hebron of Carnegie Tech.

RIVER ISN'T TOO CLOSE TO SHORE, BUT SHORES TOO NEAR FOOTBALL FIELD, SO

Many grid fans have marveled at the fact that with the intense rivalry existing between the Massillon and Canton, O., professional teams Massillon allows all games with Canton each season to be played at Canton. But there's a reason. It's the conditions attending the only available field at Massillon.

The field is on the bank of the Tuscarawas river. There is a legal barrier to building a fence along the river bank far enough from the sideline to accommodate spectators. Without the fence sixty guards have failed to keep folk from walking along the river bank and into the bark. At the last game played at the field only 1,000 persons paid to see the game, but over 4,000 watched the contest.

Sport Briefs

Manager Gavvy Cravath if the Phillies according to reports printed in Los Angeles expects to secure a couple of Coast League players during the winter. Men he has in mind are Bill Pertica and Curly Brown.

The eight clubs of the National League in a total of 1,116 games this year. Only two tie games were played one between the Robins and Phillies and the other one the Braves and Cardinals.

Retirements from baseball are getting an early start. The leadoff man is Outfielder Tommy Griffith of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who opines he will quit the game and go into business, probably locating at Columbus, Ohio.

Rollie Zeider, reports have it, many manage a team in the Western Canada League next season. Zeider once played in that circuit and is remembered there for his good work.

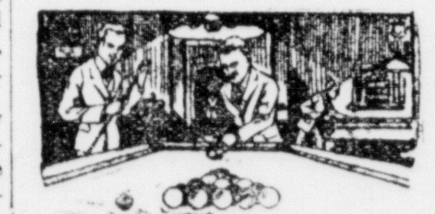

Guarded intimations that Walter Maranville of the Boston Braves will be found playing shortstop for the New York Giants next season lead to the conclusion that the oft-reported transfer of Rogers Hornsby to the Giants is not to be. Maranville is quoted as saying it is his ambition to play with the Giants.

Babe Ruth is still hitting home runs. He took part in a ball game in Brooklyn the other day, one team being made up of American League players and the other of International players, and one of his stunts was to hit the ball out of the lot.

The park of the Cubs in Chicago has been turned into a gridiron for the off season in baseball. A professional football club has leased it for games that will mark the introduction of professional football in Chicago on an organized scale.

Charles A. Stoneman president and principal owner of the New York Giants, is reported to have purchased a race track in Cuba for a million dollars or so. Just furnishing a place for John McGraw to spend the winter, no doubt.

"IT'S YOUR BREAK, TOM."

Crash! and the fifteen balls scurry around the table and into the pockets!

It's a game that refreshes the mind and rests the nerves.

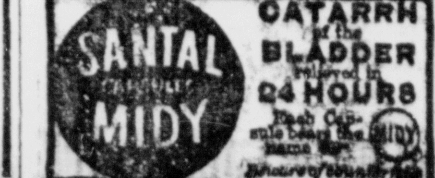

Wholesome play builds character and self-control. It cleanses tired brains.

Play a game of billiards to-night and tomorrow morning at nine you'll be back at your desk keen as a fighting cock.

MARTIN BEATS BONDS TO PULP

A. E. F. Champion Puts Opponent to Ropes--Bout Called In Eleventh to Save Bonds from Knockout.

AKRON, Oct. 29.—Bob Martin, A. E. F., and interallied heavyweight champion, last night successfully hurdled the first obstacle in his path to Jack Dempsey's championship title, when Referee Matt Hinkel stopped the bout in the eleventh between Martin and Joe Bonds, to save the latter from a certain knockout.

A capacity audience greeted Martin in his first professional appearance, including sport notables from all sections of the country. Martin pounded Bonds into a bloody mess and from the fourth round on the latter clung to the soldier boy for dear life.

A hard right in the third round opened Bonds' lip and throughout the remaining rounds blood gushed from his mouth. In the sixth round Martin shot a left hook to the jaw, that sent Bonds to the mat. He was up at the count of four.

The bout was fast, with Martin as the aggressor trailing his opponent about the ring like a ferocious tiger. He used both hands to advantage and Bonds' ring experience alone aided him to last through to the eleventh. All the fight was taken out of Bonds after the first three rounds and usually he was resting on the ropes or clinging to Martin. He did no offensive work, but cleverly caused Martin to miss many of his hay-makers.

The ninth and tenth were extremely fast for two heavyweights, Martin opening up with a variety of punches. He played on Bonds' stomach and used a left hook successfully.

Bonds was covering up and backing away, Martin rocking his head from side to side with heavy punches.

The doughboy rushed from his corner in the eleventh and met Bonds in the middle of the ring. He shot his left to Bonds' sore mouth time and again and Bonds began to totter weakly under the storm of blows. He rushed into a clinch, Referee Hinkel stepped between the boys and awarded the decision to Martin.

CANTON SEEKS OLIPHANT, ARMY STAR, IS CLAIM

Generally Conceded to Be One of the Best Backfield Men of Time.

HAY UNCOMMUNICATIVE

Thorpe Promises Jolt for Three Other Contenders for Title.

CANTON, O., October 29.—Right Jim Thorpe has a remarkable--almost supernatural--backfield in Griggs, Guyon, Calac, Chamberlain and himself. And right now, that backfield would give the best of them a lot of worry. But before the season progresses much further, and before the Bulldogs clash with either Akron or Massillon the chances are that another star will be added to that backfield.

Just who the star will be cannot be said at this time. It may be Elmer Oliphant, generally conceded to be the best backfield man of the age and then again it might be another star of nation-wide prominence.

"The heavy timber is to come." That's all that Business Manager Hays says at the present time. But

SMITH WON ON FOUL

JACKSON, Mich., Oct. 29.—Homer Smith, heavyweight of Benton Harbor, won on a foul in the fourth round from Jack (Twin) Sullivan, of Buffalo, here last night. Joe Burton, of Jackson, stopped Joe O'Keefe, of Philadelphia in the third round.

Canton fans are assured that Hay and Thorpe will bring a star here who is even better than any of the now near-supernatural four comprising the carrying quartet.

As for Thorpe he is remaining quiet on the matter. But it can safely be said that surprise and jolt is in store Massillon, Akron and Cleveland, the three other contenders for the 1919 U. S. open title.

It is recalled that Oliphant wired Hay recently, telling him that he had not signed a Massillon contract. Rumor had it that Oliphant would play with the Tigers his season. But the former army halfback emphatically denied the rumor in his wire to Hay.

Now Dame Rumor has it that Oliphant wants to play with Canton this season. And the chances are that Canton fans will see Oliphant in action here before the season comes to a close.

Some of the Coast League critics hold that Fatty Arbuckle never was serious about buying the Vernon Club and that he merely took hold of it for the advertising he could get out of it.

Tobacco Hardens the Arteries Overtaxes the Heart and Shortens Life

Says Dr. Conner, Who Suggests a Simple Test to Find if It Is Hurting You. Can You Stand It?

NEW YORK.—Dr. Conner, formerly of John Hopkins Hospital, says: Hundreds of thousands of men who smoke and who believe themselves healthy are suffering from progressive organic ailments. They would never have been afflicted had it not been for the use of tobacco, and most of them would soon get well if they would only stop the use of tobacco.

The best known habit-forming principal of tobacco is nicotine, but the most deadly and demoralizing is tar. Both are deadly poisons which when absorbed by the system slowly but surely affect the nerves, membranes, tissues, vital organs and vitality of the body.

The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances and the individual. In some it causes general debility, others attacks of the throat, indigestion, constipation, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will power, cowardice and fear, mental confusion, etc.; in others it causes heart disease, bronchial troubles, hardening of the arteries, palpitation of the heart, tuberculosis, blindness, cancer and the common affliction known as tobacco heart.

If you use tobacco in any form you easily detect its harmful effects by making the following simple tests: Read aloud a full page from a book. If your voice becomes muffled, hoarse and indistinct and you must frequently clear your throat, the chances are that your throat is affected by catarrh, and it may be the beginning of very serious catarrhal trouble. Next, in the morning, before taking your usual smoke, walk up three flights of stairs at a regular pace, then stop. If you find that you are out of breath, if your heart-beat is forced, trembling or irregular, you may be the victim of a functional or organic heart trouble. If you feel that you must smoke or chew to quiet your nerves, you are a slave to the tobacco habit and are slowly poisoning yourself with the insidious, deadly drugs, nicotine and tar. In either case you have just two alternatives--keep on with your self-poisoning process regardless of the dangers and suffer the consequences or rid yourself of the habit and escape the dangers.

You can overcome the craving to stop the tobacco habit in a very short time by using the following inexpensive formula: Go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol. Take one tablet after each meal and in a comparatively short time you will have no desire for tobacco. The craving will have left you. With the nicotine poisoning out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note: When asked about Nicotol one of our leading druggists said: "Nicotol is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit. It is way ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol is sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including Chas. T. Larkins.
